Dear Emory Parents and Families:

Welcome to Spring Semester 2016! The Emory students pictured here represent our future. As a highly ranked institution, Emory staff and faculty have the pleasure of working with students who are eager to learn, ready to serve, and subsequently equipped to positively impact their communities and the world. As we prepare them for life beyond Emory, we rejoice in their enthusiasm, intellect, and passion. Thank you for giving us the best and the brightest!

Hail the Gold & Blue!

NEWS UPDATES

Emory University received a $2.6 million grant to launch the Emory Integrity Project (EIP), a comprehensive effort to promote and develop a culture of ethics and integrity throughout Emory's undergraduate experience. Read more here.
SPORTS ROUNDPUP

Winter sports are heating up with conference play. To follow your favorite Emory sports teams and find out information about winter intramurals, check the Emory Athletics webpage here.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Resident Advisor positions are one of the most significant means for being engaged with the life of the university. They also offer meaningful employment for undergraduate students. Information about RA positions as well as summer conference positions is available here.

International students represent 17% of our Emory undergraduate population. The Office of International Student Life has a weekly newsletter that offers information on activities, programs and resources. In order to subscribe, you can opt in here.

Late Night @ Emory: Don’t forget about the programs and activities that are offered Friday and Saturday evenings and open to all students. Helpful information can be found here.

Information about other Campus Life departments that offer outstanding resources can be found here.

HEALTHY CAMPUS/FLOURISH EMORY

Each Tuesday the Office of Sustainability Initiatives sponsors a Farmers Market on the Cox Hall Bridge. Community members come together to purchase locally produced food, including vegan donut options. Read more here.
CAREER CENTER CORNER

Summer opportunities abound through various Emory resources.

The Center for International Programs Abroad (CIPA) has applications open for the new Global Internship program.

Emory College of Arts and Sciences offers over 150 courses on campus and online during the summer. Explore the academic opportunities that are available to undergraduates and visiting students here. Summer registration opens February 5.

In addition to the university Career Center, the Goizueta Business School and the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing also have career services to serve Emory students:

BBA Career Management Center
