Dear Families,

We enjoyed hosting many of you during our recent Family Weekend! We hope you will mark October 20-22, 2017 on your calendars for next year’s Family Weekend. Concurrent with Family Weekend will be Emory’s annual alumni homecoming celebration. Bringing families and alumni together with our students will offer a festive and engaging weekend full of programs, entertainment, and activities. We are excited about the possibilities and hope you will be able to join in the fun!

If you have any questions, suggestions, responses are only an email away at: family@emory.edu.

Hail the Gold & Blue!

Bridget Guernsey Riordan, Ph.D.
Assistant Vice President of Campus Life
Alumni Relations, Parent & Family Programs
NEWS UPDATES

Emory Professor Deborah Lipstadt recently spoke and signed copies of her award-winning book "History on Trial: My Day in Court with a Holocaust Denier" during Family Weekend. Currently, "Denial," a movie based on her book and starring Academy Award Winner Rachel Weisz, is playing in theatres across the U.S.

SPORTS AND HEALTH PROMOTION

The fall sports season is winding down while some winter sports have kicked off. To read up on your favorite teams, see here.

Group fitness classes are a great way for students to keep in shape. Information is available here.

The Office of Health Promotion offers resources for students to learn about and practice healthy behaviors. To read more, see here.

Student Health 101 magazine is another valuable resource. Read here.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Remember: EmoryCares International Service Day is Saturday, November 12. Emory students, alumni, and families from around the world participate in service to their communities. If any family members are interested in participating in their cities, we welcome you! To see the projects and register, click here.

With the vision "for Emory to become a place where all students can understand and appreciate the diverse array of cultures represented on our campus," the Office of International Student Life offers resources, programs and valuable information to all students with an emphasis on international students. Their newsletter is a great resource and can be viewed here.

Information about other Campus Life departments that offer outstanding resources can be found here.
The Career Center offers numerous resources including research connections and internship opportunities. Check the Career Center website:  http://www.career.emory.edu/
