Dear Emory Families,

You made it! Whether through physical exertion and/or emotional support, you have helped your students move into a new academic year at Emory! Thank you! We are excited to have them as part of our Emory community! Multiple resources are available for Emory students. Through this newsletter we hope to offer you Emory news, resources for parents, and information that may be beneficial to you and that you may want to pass on to your students. Past newsletters can be found at www.family.emory.edu.

Families and parents continue to be important partners for us. If you have any questions, suggestions, or inquiries, please email family@emory.edu to contact us.

Hail the Gold & Blue!

Bridget Guernsey Riordan, Ph.D.
Assistant Vice President of Campus Life
Alumni Relations, Parent & Family Programs

NEWS UPDATES

Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter, University Distinguished Professor at Emory, will host his 35th Carter Town Hall Meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, in the Woodruff P.E. Center. Carter will answer written questions from students and has never refused to answer any question!

Progress at Emory is physically seen through the many construction projects. To read more, click here.

The Emory Report serves as an informative, lively and comprehensive resource for news and events. If you would like to subscribe to the Emory Report, you can opt in here.

SPORTS AND HEALTH PROMOTION

"Athletics for all" is our Emory motto. Intramural, Club Sports, and fitness classes provide multiple opportunities for being active and staying fit. In addition, our sports teams are comprised of national and conference champions, conference champions as well as multiple Academic All-Americans. To find out more, go here.

The Office of Health Promotion offers resources for students to learn about and practice healthy behaviors. To read more, click here. Student Health 101 magazine is another valuable resource. See here.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Emory offers a chance for multi-generational interactions where upper-class students help first year students such as the MORE Mentor program. Resident Advisors, Sophomore Advisors, and leaders in student organizations all gain valuable leadership skills while assisting their fellow students. To read about Campus Life departments where these opportunities and other outstanding resources exist, click here.

The Offices of Residence Life and Housing Operations thank you for participating in move-in weekend! We appreciate your feedback. To complete our survey go here.
The Career Center offers a variety of services and programs. Choosing a major and career exploration are amongst topics the staff can explore with students. To find out more, click here.

The current program guide can be found here.

In addition to the university Career Center, the Goizueta Business School and the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing also have career services to serve Emory students:
