February 2019

“Free food!” Those two words typically grab the attention of every college student. Campus Life has enlisted a program to promote student-faculty engagement through lunch at the DUCling. Students can enjoy lunch while making meaningful connections with faculty members who can guide and assist them. I hope you will encourage your students to take advantage of this fun opportunity. Who says there’s no such thing as a free lunch?

Please know if you have any questions, suggestions, or inquiries, you can email: family@emory.edu for assistance.

NEWS UPDATES

Our Facebook Live series continues. Join us on Tuesday, February 12th to find out everything you wanted to know about housing through 2020. In March, we'll go live with the Career Center to discuss the best ways to use resources over four years. Visit our website to catch a replay of our previous discussions.
If you or your students are music lovers, Atlanta has an endless supply of musical venues and featured musical talents.

ACADEMIC UPDATES

The Office of Undergraduate Education offers a number of services such as academic advising, scholarship information, and more.

One of the beauties of a university is that there is always something new to learn and discover. Here's a list of upcoming events.

CAREER CENTER CORNER
The Emory Career Center features resources that will help students as they research potential employers and careers.

Gamma Phi Beta Sorority recently featured an Emory alumnus who is making a difference.

In addition to the University Career Center, the Goizueta Business School and the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing also have career services to serve Emory students.

EMORY ATHLETICS

Twelve student-athletes have been chosen as members of the Emory University Class of 2019 100 Senior Honorary.

Last week, the Eagles captured their fifth straight win and raised their overall record to 15-5, 6-3 in the UAA.

Eagle Edge provides one-stop assistance to aid student-athletes in their academic, athletic, and personal development by holistically focusing on four core areas: academic support, health and well-being, life skills, and leadership and service.

HEALTH AND RECREATION

Concussions don’t just affect athletes. Our Student Health professionals are taking special care to address this issue.

Emory Student Health Services offers a parent guide to student healthcare.

The Office of Health Promotion offers resources for students to learn about and practice healthy behaviors. Stress can have a negative impact on our health. Also, check out Student Health 101 magazine - another valuable resource for managing a healthy lifestyle.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

A fun way to get great experience is through being an Orientation Leader. Applications are due March 1.

The Office of International Student Life offers valuable resources and programs. Check out their website for more information.

Information about other Campus Life departments that offer outstanding resources can be found here.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND RESOURCE INFORMATION
It’s not too early to think about commencement! If you need commencement housing, the most convenient and affordable option is right here on campus. No need to worry about traffic, parking, and other commencement-related delays, reservations began Monday, August 20, 2018.

Important calendar dates for 2018-19.

Consider international study opportunities throughout the year.
